

Creative Policy

Leaf Arts provides creative arts opportunities to empower, assist and facilitate people in making positive changes within their lives and communities.

Leaf Arts is committed to working with communities and individuals on arts-based projects that promotes and encourages diversity, inclusion and equality.

Participation:

All projects are conceived, planned and delivered around the needs and requirements of the participants. Participants are encouraged to fully involve themselves and to reach achievements within the project that stretch their creative potential.

Leaf Arts delivers participatory arts projects and sees no distinction between public and community arts – whether process based or product led.

Partnership:

Leaf Arts builds partnerships with community organisations, charities, businesses, statutory bodies and local authorities and project funders, whose aim is to support individuals and communities to improve their lives.

Quality:

Leaf Arts aims to produce work of the highest quality. Quality is seen in terms of project management, workshop content & delivery and artwork produced as outcomes.

Creative environment:

Leaf Arts believes that the environment we work in is important for nurturing the creative spirit and improving quality of work and project experience. We aim to:

- Ensure workshop environments are safe and conducive to creativity.
- Provide quality materials and resources for participants to realise their creative ideas.
- Support participants and clients to enable them to value and nurture their creativity and the development of their skills.

Skills:

Leaf Arts will ensure that artists with the appropriate level of skills and delivery experience is entrusted to work with each group of participants we are commissioned to work with.
